LOCATION.

This school is beautifully located in the city of Raleigh, N. C., within five minutes walk of the Post Office and Capitol. The grounds include several acres of land, and are among the finest in the city. This Institution already furnishes by far the largest accommodations of any colored school in North Carolina, and in the large number of advanced pupils, is not surpassed by any colored Institute in the country.

In the various departments of the School, all the different branches are taught which a thorough course of study requires. A Normal Department has been established which affords pupils the opportunity to prepare themselves to become teachers with as thorough a drill as could be secured in Normal Schools in the North.

A College Department has also been established to accommodate students who aspire to a more liberal education, and classes have been formed to meet the wants of this class of students.

It must be distinctly understood, however, that a student, in order to be advanced into the higher course, must have mastered the elementary branches, and be able to bear a critical examination in all the studies pursued in the Normal Department. No scholarship of a superficial character will be allowed to advance a pupil in his course, and thus enable him to lay claim to knowledge he never possessed, resulting in positive injury to himself, and calculated to bring reproach upon the Institution.

The Theological Department is in successful operation, and such a course of study pursued as will qualify young men for the work of the gospel ministry. Colored ministers of the State will be welcomed even if they only remain in school a month or two at a time.

Expenses Per Month:

Board for young men and women,.....	$6 00
Tuition, room rent, beds and furniture,.....	1 50
Fuel and lights,.....	50

The young ladies will be allowed to do their own washing. The young men will be charged extra fifty cents per month for washing if done by the Institution.

Music.

The expense of instruction upon the Organ and Piano is $10.00 per Session. As the colored people possess great natural ability in Music it has been thought desirable to afford first-class facilities that they may be able to cultivate this talent, which cannot fail to be of great service as an auxiliary in promoting their elevation, and especially in its attractive and refining influence both in connection with the Sabbath School work and their religious worship.

Beneficiaries.

Young men who have the ministry in view, and can present testimonials of unblemished moral and religious character, will be assisted, if found worthy after several months of trial in school. It is expected, however, that they will enter school at the commencement of the session, and remain through the year, and will assist in their support by working sufficiently to keep the grounds in good order, and cultivate the lands connected with the premises. Students who do not enter school at the commencement of the session and comply with rules governing beneficiaries will forfeit their scholarship.

ESTEY SEMINARY.

The Estey Seminary building is the finest school edifice in the State of North Carolina, and is said to have been the first erected of any considerable size and devoted exclusively to the education of colored women. It has accommodations for about one hundred pupils. The Seminary is named after Dea. Estey, of Brattleboro', Vt., and constitutes one department of Shaw University. Dea. Estey and Sons were the first men in the denomination to aid in this department of work, and it has been largely through their liberality and continued interest in female education among the colored people that the building has been completed and furnished. George M. Morse, of Putnam, Conn., has also rendered valuable assistance, and the Seminary has not a more devoted friend.

Financial Condition of the University.

The important work of founding this Institution has been steadily going forward during the last fourteen years, until the property is valued at more than one hundred thousand dollars. But the success of the past, while it calls for devout thanksgiving to the Bestower of all good, should not blind the friends of this enterprise to the necessity of continued effort and zeal. This Institution stands now in the front rank, compared with the schools established by other denominations for the education of colored people, and should these pages meet the eye of any who feel the importance of the enterprise, and are seeking how they can invest their surplus wealth where it will bless most fully the present and coming generations, we invite them to consider the wants of this Institution, not only as it relates to the colored people of our own land, but its destined effects upon African civilization as a foreign Missionary work.

A New Department Needed.

The colored people at present are without educated Physicians, and thus are subjected to all manner of quackery and imposition, and many suffer and die for want of medical attention. At the annual meeting of the Trustees last December, the necessity for a Medical Department was discussed at some length, and the following resolution, offered by Col. Levi K. Fuller, President of the Board, was passed :

Resolved, In regard to the suggestions of the Principal of Shaw University, Rev. H. M. Tupper, looking towards the establishment of a medical department, to be connected with the University, that we appreciate the necessity of such a department; and when the time arrives for the proper carrying out of the project, we shall be willing to lend our aid and countenance.

Also the subject has been brought to the attention of many wealthy citizens of the North, and the general impression has seemed to be that it was an important work, and it is hoped that during the coming year some faithful steward of God will come forward and help the colored people in establishing a Medical School. It is believed that the colored people themselves would largely assist in such an enterprise. There is much enthusiasm among the students of the Institution, many of whom are anxious to obtain a medical education, and such a school would be largely patronized by the colored people of the adjoining States.

RULES.

1st. The course of study shall be open to all young men and women who can present testimonials of unblemished moral character.

2d. Students must bear a satisfactory examination in all the previous studies of the class which they propose to enter, and to be admitted, their scholarship must be equal to the average of the class.

3rd. No student will be allowed to absent himself from any recitation, lecture, roll call, or any exercise enjoined by the Faculty, unless previous permission has been obtained from the proper excusing officer.

4th. All excuses for delinquencies shall be made in person or by writing, to the proper officer, and until this is done, the delinquencies of any student will stand against him as unexcused.

5th. During study hours each pupil, when not in recitation, shall remain in his room and apply himself strictly to his studies. The following points at least are embodied in the above rule. There shall be no loud talking and laughing in any of the halls or rooms. No frivolous conversation or attention to trivial matters, or visiting each other's rooms, or lounging upon beds or loitering upon the grounds.

6th. Any defacement of the buildings or grounds, or committing any nuisance, will subject a student to immediate expulsion.

7th. No student shall be allowed to throw water, slops, paper, or anything offensive or dangerous from the windows of any building of the University.

8th. No student shall be allowed to smoke or chew tobacco in any of the University buildings, or spit upon the floors, or visit any drinking saloon, or bring upon the grounds or use any spirituous liquors, unless for medicinal purposes.

9th. If anything is removed or lost that is in the possession of any student, or if injury is done to furniture, rooms, buildings or any property belonging to the University, the damage shall be assessed by the President, and the amount designated to cover the loss shall be paid immediately by the student or students doing the injury.

10th. Students are required to attend Divine worship at the University church, unless a student may be a member of another denomination, when, if he prefers, he will be allowed to attend his own church.

11th. No student will be permitted to remain in the University who does not at all times maintain the habits of virtue and the strictest rules of deportment, and treat the officers of the institution and their fellow students with respect.

12th. Whenever the Faculty become satisfied that a student is wilfully violating the rules of the school, or is not industrious in his studies, or for any cause is not a fit member of the University, the President shall write his parents or guardian, in order that he may be withdrawn, but in case the welfare of the University demands immediate action, then he shall be disciplined or excluded, at the discretion of the Faculty.

13th. No student shall be admitted under twelve years of age.

RESPECTING BENEFICIARIES.

14th. Students must remain in the Institution a reasonable length of time to prepare themselves for the sacred work of the Gospel ministry.

15th. No student will be allowed to leave school during the session, unless in case of sickness, or in the Providence of God the necessity becomes evident.

16th. All ministerial students expecting to receive aid must enter punctually at the beginning of each term, or forfeit their support.

17th. Any beneficiary leaving, contrary to the advice of the Principal, will refund to the Institution the amount of money due for Board from his first entering school, computed at the rate of $6.00 per month.

18th. Beneficiaries who are unmarried will not be permitted to enter the matrimonial state during the course of study.

19th. Students making application for aid must pledge that they will refrain from the use of tobacco and spirituous liquors, and maintain the principle of total abstinence.
